

Hi everyone! Yesterday was St. Patrick's Day, which is a global celebration of Irish culture, remembering particularly Ireland's patron saints. This year the famous parades were cancelled but there are other ways to enjoy Irish culture!

1. Astronauts celebrated it with photos of Ireland from space! You can read the news here:

2. Also there were virtual parades that you can watch here:

3. CNN recommends watching these films (You can find them on Netflix):

- a. The Crying Game starring Stephen Rea
- b. The Irishman in which stars Robert De Niro and Al Pacino
- c. Gangs of New York with Leonardo Di Caprio
- d. The Boondock Saints
- e. The Luck of the Irish (a teen film)

4. Also you could read Irish authors as James Joyce or Oscar Wilde. Here you have a link to Wilde's play The importance of being earnest:

5. I would also recommend you listening to Irish singers. In the link below you are going to find a video with lyrics of Enya's song Only Time:

Who can say when the roads meet
That love might be in your heart
And who can say when the day sleeps
If the night keeps all your heart
Night keeps all your heart
Who can say if your love grows
As your heart chose, only time
And who can say where the road goes
Where the day flows, only time

Now, identify in the verses above all the verbs. Then, once you had identified them, change the words in bold to plural. Finally, change the verbs that follow those words.

Translate the verses.

Have a nice day!
